

Categories	Excellent 25-24	Very Good- 23-20	Proficient— 19-18	Needs Assistance 17-15
Overall Quality of Project	Project went above and beyond expectations by including multi-media; Good balance between quantity and quality of information. Pictures, maps, and charts were used and from unique sources. Excellent integration of technology. Many multi-media enhancements.	Information was thoroughly explained and easy to understand; pictures, maps and charts were used to explain the information. Technology was used to support information.	Project displayed information. Needed more information/pictures to support concepts.	Project lacked cohesiveness; little effort
Knowledge of Topic	Students were extremely well versed in their topic. Could answer abstract, thoughtful questions.	Students understood and could relay the basic information about their topic. Could answer questions from the audience/ teacher successfully.	Project information was simple and straightforward	Project missed basic information about the concepts.
Presentation of information	Presentation was smooth; very professional looking; no grammar or spelling mistakes; kept your audience's attention; included the Fair Use Statement in writing. Cards used parenthetical documentation.	Presentation was well done;; No grammar or spelling mistakes; everyone participated; included the Fair Use Statement; cards used parenthetical documentation for specifics	Information was relayed without emotion or enthusiasm;	Group was unprepared or not well versed on the topic audience was lost; Professional courtesies were missing
Work Ethic	Students worked independently with little assistance or guidance from the teacher. All handouts were turned in on time. Students were on task 90% of the time or more.	Students were efficient and worked well together; needed very little guidance. Handouts were turned in on time. Students were on task 80% of the time.	Students needed guidance from the teacher. Handouts were turned in late. Students were on task 70% of the time	Students needed intensive support to finish their project. Teacher never received a handout.

Assessment of Project

Total Points: _____ / 100

4/27/11 amanhart